STAT

Area of Coverage: China

Subjects Covered: Agricultural credit; rural leading institutions; farm insurance (including crops, livestock, farmhouses, and equipment) agricultural credit cooperatives; the role of agencies and branches of state banks

Review: For popular consumption. Describes in nontechnical terms the rural credit and monetary system that prevailed during the preliberation period. Discusses the financial and credit requirements of the rural areas and how the present regime tries to fulfill the credit needs, supply facilities for savings and provide insurance for the peasants.
 Discusses various banking and credit institutions in general terms.
 Chapter on rural credit cooperatives is more informative than other chapters.
